

Early Learning Collaborative

It's Kick off time....

Author: Kellie Lumsden

Planning Session for the National Early Learning Collaborative

You will come away with:

- Understanding of the Improvement Science and IHI Breakthrough Series and
- Understanding of key success factors in ensuring each collaborative gets results
- Understanding your role in the project
- A list of immediate tasks to achieve by the end of October
- A list of meeting dates and commitments for the entire project
- Understand the data collection process

Roles and Responsibilities of Regional Champions

- Drive project at a local level
- Engage Centres and invite them into the collaborative
- Build network relating to aims and aspirations of the project
- Encouraging collaboration and connection
- Problem solving issues as they arise
- Take part in the Breakthrough Series Training
- Improving Together Training – online training
- Motivate, coach and mentor centre staff
- Assist centre teams to ensure timely and accurate data
- Support will be provided through Kellie and Ko Awatea
- Regular updates and reports via EWU

Logistics

- Letter of engagement for each participant
- Organisation of Learning Sessions
- Visits to centres and phone calls to centres
- Organisation Video conferences
- Getting each centre on-board with data collection

Communication opportunities

- Twitter accounts – how to do a great tweet
- Photographs of activities in centre
- Logo
- Name of the project